Our agreement with you for the sale of goods or services (the “Contract”) consists of: (i) any terms that our and your authorised representatives have signed; (ii) any order confirmation we provide to you; (iii) any delivery note or invoice we provide to you; and (iv) these Conditions of Sale. If there is any inconsistency between any parts of this list, the parts of the Contract placed higher in the list will take precedence.

2. Acceptance of orders; your conditions excluded; inspection

- 2.1 You may send us orders in writing, by phone, by electronic data interchange or any other method agreed with us. Any order you send us will be an offer to purchase our goods and no binding contract will arise unless we accept your order in writing.
- 2.2 If you seek to impose additional or different terms on us, they will not form part of the Contract, and are excluded and rejected by these Conditions of Sale.
- 2.3 Any quotations given by us are not binding on us.
- 2.4 The goods or services covered by any order shall be deemed finally inspected and accepted by you within 30 days after delivery or performance by us, unless you give us written notice of rejection or notice of claim within such 30 days.
- 2.5 You must establish and maintain an adequate system to identify and trace the goods delivered by us at all times that is compatible with our tracing system. We shall not be liable for any costs associated with breach of this clause.

Written notice of any defect shall be given by you to us within ten (10) days after such defect(s) are detected or appear. The term of warranty is one year from the date of delivery. The warranty does not extend to goods damaged or subjected to accident, abuse, misuse or improper installation or maintenance after delivery, nor to goods altered or repaired by anyone other than us. The warranty period above shall continue for any parts replacing defective goods.
- 3.2 Where we perform services, they will be performed in accordance with the specification in all material respects and they will be provided using reasonable care and skill.

- 3.4 Written permission for the return of any goods based on a warranty claim must be first obtained from us. All returns, which shall be at your cost, must be accompanied with a complete written explanation of claimed defects and the circumstances of operational failure. Title in any returned goods is transferred to us upon receipt and we may scrap returned goods at our discretion.

- 5.2 We can only provide estimated delivery dates, and any order is accepted by us on the basis that time is not of the essence.
- 5.3 Where the Contract allows you to buy our goods over a period of time by sending purchase orders to us, each order will constitute a separate contract and any breach in relation to an order will not entitle you to terminate the Contract as a whole.

6. Risk, ownership and duty of care

- 6.1 The goods are at your risk from the time of delivery.
- 6.2 All goods supplied by us will continue to belong to us until you have paid us in full for them (together with any applicable sales tax). You may resell our goods as part of the normal conduct of your business, unless we ask you to return them. If we ask you to return our goods, you agree to make them available for us to pick up and, if you fail to make them available when asked, you agree that we can enter your premises to collect them.
